

Clash and Connect

Wednesday 29th October 2008,
10.00am-4.30pm
Friends House, Euston

During the October half-term Clash and Connect will bring together young people from across London to take part in an activity packed day featuring workshops, discussions and debates on a wide range of diversity issues and how they affect young people.

Organised by young volunteers from London Youth's new Discussing Diversity project Clash and Connect will include inspiring speakers, free food and great entertainment.

Open to both young people and youth workers everyone attending Clash and Connect will receive a free copy of new the Discussing Diversity resource pack offering inspiration and guidance on running diversity based activities within your youth club.

This event is FREE but spaces are limited so book your place today to avoid disappointment.
Email Claire.Shephard@londonyouth.org.uk for a registration form or call John on 020 7549 8818 to find out more.
www.londonyouth.org.uk

