

Employability Training Course

The labour market for young people we new at the end of the 20th century has disappeared and now many young people struggle to find employment. There are entry level jobs but there has never been more competition from adults and increasingly young people need to present themselves as both job ready and motivated.

This course will introduce PAs to some of the key information, skills and resources needed to help young people find there way into the current Central London Labour Market.

Target Audience:

- Personal Advisers
- Relevant IYSS staff

Aims:

- Find out more about what Employers are really looking for
- Want to know what makes a YP job ready?
- Learn more about the tools and resources that will enable you to identify a job ready YP
- Improve your skills in facilitating job readiness for YP