

Apprenticeship and Employer Services Training 2010

The Connexions South London Sub-Regional Unit is working with the London region of the National Apprenticeship Service (NAS) on a special project aimed at improving its partnership working with Connexions. This training is aimed at Connexions Personal Advisers who work with employers to enable them to be more effective in explaining Apprenticeships and the services Connexions offer to employers.

Training Content:

1. What NAS and Connexions Services can offer employers
2. Pan-London guidelines and sharing good practice in vacancy taking
3. Apprenticeship and vacancy referral process for Connexions PAs and NAS colleagues
4. Apprenticeship 'myth busting' and FAQ
5. Practical sessions on contacting employers and handling possible objections

Suitable for: PAs who are administering/managing employer liaison services only

Trainer:

Please note:

- Please book training sessions available in your sub-region only.
- Maximum of 2 Personal Advisors per borough.

For more information please contact: laureneyles@connexionsru.org.uk

If you would like to attend one of these courses please return a booking form authorised by your line manager.