There is a better way

Since launching the Young Leaders Project in 2007 we have supported 110 groups of young people to design, develop and run their own sex and relationships education projects. We have already awarded £88,000 to help young people do this.

We are now launching the next round of funding.

Terrence Higgins Trust Young Leaders are inviting groups of young people to come up with innovative and creative ideas about how to educate their friends about relationships and sex. If we like your idea we'll give you the money to make it happen. All you need to do is get together with your youth club, school or other organisation to develop your idea and make an application to your local Young Leaders Regional Board.

If you go to our website you will find more information on how to apply for a grant. For inspiration there is also information about the projects we have already funded. This will give you an idea of the type of projects that have been successful so far.

Anyone can apply! So far we have received projects from:

- Young people with learning difficulties
- Young mothers and fathers
- Young people living with or affected by HIV
- College students
- Young carers
- Young people with disabilities
- LBGT young people
- Youth groups
- Young offenders

Get your application to us by June 26th.
