

Get into Construction

with The Prince's Trust

in association with Carillion

Leading learning and skills

Have you ever considered a career in the construction industry?

If you are aged 16-25, unemployed and available for two weeks starting from 19 January 2009, you could:

- gain a CSCS card – a requirement for working in the construction industry
- get hands-on training in some of the key construction skills
- learn about careers and your prospects within the industry
- potentially get a job, and the opportunity for further training within the industry
- meet new people and have some fun

Come to an employability dates are 13 January 2009 and 14 January 2009 to see if it is for you. For more information please contact Katy Reiff at The Prince's Trust on 020 7543 1457 or katy.reiff@princes-trust.org.uk

This course is offered in conjunction with Carillion.

The Prince's Trust - helping change young lives

Prince's Trust

The Construction & Business Services Leadership Group